BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY IS CURTAILING EXPENSES

Many Employees to be Dropped in This District in Near Future, It is Claimed. Plans for Uniting Local Systems go Glimmering—No Employees of Local Office to be Dropped From Pay Roll So Far as Known—Legal Battle Blamed for Retrenchment.

An order has apparently gone forth in Bell Telephone circles for "retrenchment," and a general shake-up in this district is now under way, and it is claimed that the cut in salaries in this district must reach $700 per month. Corresponding cuts are said to be taking place in other districts.

So far the shake-up has not reached this city, where some 18 persons are employed by the Bell company, and it is possible that no reduction will be made in the local force.

Already many linemen and others have been dropped from the pay roll in the local district, and more are expected to be laid off at any time. One report states that 100 employees may be dropped within the next few days.

The reduction in expenditures is alleged to be due to the litigation now ending in the courts in Chicago, wherein the minority stock holders and some independent concerns are involved on the one side and representatives of the American Telegraph and Telephone company on the other. It is claimed that the main forces opposing the Central Union Company, are the independent telephone supply manufacturing concerns and independent telephone companies. Of the two factors the manufacturing concerns is apparently waging the hardest warfare, and the claim is made that wherever the Central Union or main company, the A. T. & T., take over independent systems, a contract must be entered into whereby all supplies must be purchased from the Western Electric Company, which is a part of the A. T. & T. System.

It is believed by some that the shake-up will have a tendency to get rid of some of the red tape now used in conducting the affairs of the Central Union. The Central Union company embraces Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and heretofore the business affairs of the concern have been divided into three departments, the departments into districts, with a district superintendent and corps of assistants. The superintendent's office at Columbus is where the shake-up is supposed to center, and further developments will be watched with interest.

It is believed that the reduction of employees will not affect the actual efficiency of the company.

No further efforts to combine the two local telephone systems is expected, at least not in the near future.

1915 FIGHT TO MAKE OHIO DRY

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, January 9.—The promised fight in 1915 for state-wide prohibition in Ohio became a reality today with the announcement from anti-saloon headquarters that the organization of smaller counties along temperance lines already has begun. These organizations in the counties are said to be fashioned not unlike those of political parties and are said to extend into the remotest sections of the counties. The Anti-saloon league is also taking a poll of the state it was announced to determine the sentiment of the people. This poll will be taken in the smaller counties first. It is planned to carry the state-wide prohibition in conjunction with the nation-wide fight for prohibition.

LANE DEFENDS HIS POSITION

Washington, Jan. 9.—Franklin E. Lane, secretary of the interior, insists that the conservation in the United States of lands containing radium-bearing ores should be in the interests of the public health. In a letter on the subject addressed to Governor Ammons of Colorado, the secretary of the interior declares that radium possesses great qualities as a curative agency for cancer and other diseases, and that owing to the scarcity of the mineral it is highly important that all sources of supply may be so administered that radium may be made available to the poor as well as to the rich.

Secretary Lane's letter to Governor Ammons was written as a result of protests made by the state of Colorado against the proposal of Mr. Lane that lands supposed to contain radium should be withdrawn from entry by homesteaders. Secretary Lane made such a recommendation to the house of representatives following the announcement by medical authorities that radium had been found to be efficacious as a remedy for cancer.

Meetings of the house committee on public lands and mines and mining will be held next week to consider the radium bill recommended by the secretary of the interior.

Modified x-ray treatment was recommended as a substitute for the radium cancer treatment by Director John F. Anderson of the United States hygienic laboratory. Relying on the statement of Dr. Howard Kelley of Baltimore that a new x-ray device can produce cheaply and effectively the proper kind of rays, Dr. Anderson held that this method should be used in all hospitals where machines are available.

"Radium would never cure more than a fraction of the cancer cases, nor relieve more than the most pitiful percentage of sufferers," he said, "while the use of the modified x-rays may be applied to every case."

FERRIS HOPEFUL

Houghton, Mich., January 9.—Governor Ferris wound up his personal work in the copper strike district today and left for his home in Big Rapids at noon. "I got what I came for," he said as he boarded a train. "This strike cannot be settled in a week or fortnight. I think that if it were left to the miners and employers themselves, it would be settled very quickly." The governor said he thought the present an impudent time for executive action, calling attention to the fact that the judicial machinery of the state was in full swing.

FIRST HIGH NOTE DISLODGED THE PIN.

Sturgis, Mich., Jan. 9.—Miss Mary Austin of this city swallowed a white-headed pin, and all a physician could do was to suggest that she be hurried to Ann Arbor for an operation. As the train did not leave for several hours and choir practice was scheduled she went to the local church, where she is a singer. She did not intend to sing, but as she could not feel the pin, she took a chance. At her first high note the pin became dislodged and she picked it from her mouth.

MOYER BEFORE GRAND JURORS

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 9.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and Charles Tanner, auditor of the organization, told to the grand jury here their versions of the deportation episode of Dec. 26. Less than two hours were consumed in the grand jury room, the men then returning to the same hotel in Hancock whence they were taken a fortnight ago.

Except for the fact that a big crowd of union men greeted their leader on his arrival and stood about the hotel in groups while he was there, no incident occurred to recall the intense bitterness that preceded the deportation.

Both federation men were closely guarded by deputy sheriffs and there was a general feeling that since they were under the official protection of the state of Michigan all signs of resentment should be suppressed.

The men were met at Channing, the first junction point in Michigan reached by trains from Chicago, by two deputies selected for their fearlessness and reliability. Practically every step of Moyer and Tanner was guarded by these men.

O. N. Hilton, chief counsel of the federation, met the party at the hotel and immediately went into conference with his clients. It was presumed that the developments of Governor Ferris' inquiry into strike conditions was discussed, but no announcement was made. Victor Berger, former Milwaukee congressman, who is here as a member of a committee from the national Socialist party, was admitted to the room.

So far as seeking information is concerned, Governor Ferris has virtually completed his mission to the copper mine strike zone. There remains the promises made on his arrival that after getting information from both sides he intended to exercise powers of persuasion toward a settlement. There are indications, however, that this phase of his activity in the situation might be postponed.

One way to keep the boys on the farm is to install a motor to turn the grind stone.

OUTRAGED PUBLIC IS MADDENED BY WRONGS

By Associated Press.

Pemberton, N. J., Jan. 9.—News of the arrest at Mobile, Alabama, yesterday of Joel M. Foster, charged with violation of the Mann White Slave Act, created excitement here.

Summary vengeance is threatened against Foster by residents of this place. Foster is general manager of one of the largest poultry farms in the world, located at Brown Mills, N. J. On December 15th, he disappeared from his home and at the same time his stenographer, who was arrested in Mobile with Foster, also disappeared. The girl, Delhia F. Bradley, 17, is a daughter of Harry C. Bradley, a railroad baggagemaster. She was only a year out of school, was an active member of the Pemberton Methodist Church and a teacher in its Sunday School.

Foster, who is 40, is the son of T. J. Foster, head of a correspondence school at Scranton, Pa. The deserted wife and sixteen-year old daughter of Foster are now at the home of the latter's father in Scranton.

The father of Miss Bradley is heartbroken over his daughter's escapade, but says he will receive her with open arms if she returns home. He has not instituted proceedings against Foster, but this was explained by the statement that the Federal authorities have preferred to handle the case under the White Slave Act.

WILL FIGHT CASE

By Associated Press.

Mobile, Ala., January 9.—The preliminary hearing of Joel M. Foster of Browns Mills, N. J., who was arrested Wednesday, charged with violation of the Mann White Slave law, has been set for January 14th. Foster has employed two prominent lawyers of this city to defend him and it is understood they will invoke in the case the recent decision of a Federal judge in Texas who held that the intent of the Mann act was merely to prevent commercialized vice. Foster today remained in his room at a fashionable hotel and refused to see interviewers. His former stenographer, Miss Bradley, whom he is charged with having brought here from New Jersey, today left the hotel where the two were arrested and sought seclusion in a private boarding house. During their stay at the hotel, the couple were known as Mr. and Mrs. Foster and obtained entry into society circles of this city.

NARROW ESCAPE OF HUNDRED MINERS

Moundsville, W. Va., Jan. 9.—An explosion occurred in the First street Mine of the Mound Coal Company here this morning. Four men badly injured, were taken to the hospital. An immense crowd at once surrounded the mouth of the mine which is in the village.

A rescue party entered the shaft and discovered that the explosion had been caused when a naked light had come into contact with a pocket of gas in an entry where only a few men were employed.

The remainder of the 100 miners employed in the mine were reported unhurt. Physicians said the four injured would recover.

PARDONED PRISONER SCRAPPING

By Associated Press.

Bowling Green, Ohio, January 9.—Paul Zelner, sent to the penitentiary in 1899 for life, but pardoned last Christmas, has sworn out warrants for the arrest of William B. Ramsay, the attorney who defended him and his brother, John Zelner, for the murder of E. H. Westenhaver, at Hoytville. The warrants charged Ramsay with forging a mortgage deed of 160 acres, with forging a note for $1000 to pay for the defense and with perjured testimony. Zelner has also sworn out a warrant charging William N. Hoot, of Hoytville, with acknowledging the alleged false and fraudulent deed, and one against F. A. Creede, of Pennsylvania, for alleged perjury in swearing he witnessed Margaret Zelner's signature to the note. Ramsay is now a banker of Belle Center, Logan county, Ohio.

RAILWAY OFFICIAL CAUGHT IN WRECK

By Associated Press.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 9.—John B. Munson, President and General Manager of the Georgia Southern & Florida Railroad had a narrow escape from death early today in a wreck near Cordele, Georgia, in which three persons were killed outright and twenty-seven injured.

Mr. Munson's official car was on the train and turned completely over throwing the President out of his berth and badly bruising him. Details of the wreck are meager on account of broken wires. The names of the dead and injured have not been ascertained.

SCORE OF SAILORS IN BOAT UPSET

By Associated Press.

Norfolk, Va., December 9.—One of the eight-oared gasoline launches of the battleship Wyoming turned turtle in Hampton Roads shortly before noon today. It is said to have had aboard some 19 or 20 sailors returning from shore leave. Nothing has been heard at Old Point Comfort concerning the fate of the men. The accident occurred between the Old Point pier and the Rip Raps near here. The Wyoming is lying just off Old Point Comfort.

FIVE DROWNED

By Associated Press.

Old Point Comfort, Va., January 9.—Five sailors of the crew of the flagship Wyoming of the Atlantic fleet are reported to have been drowned today when a big freight sailing cutter of the flagship was swamped with sixteen sailors aboard. Eleven men were picked up by a tug which went to their rescue. When the craft got two miles off Old Point and one half mile from the Wyoming, she struck unusually heavy seas and began to take water. She was carrying a heavy load of steel wheelbarrows and soon foundered after getting into a trough of the sea. The bodies of three men are said to have been recovered by boats from the Wyoming.

CREW RESCUED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., January 9.—Sixteen of the crew of the fishing schooner Elva L. Spurling of Provincetown, Mass., were rescued by Race Point live saving station today according to a message received at the treasury. The report did not state the nature of the disaster.

ALL CHURCH MEMBERS MUST ADVANCE TO THE FIRING LINE

Churches Must Heed the Call to Battle, Declares Rev. Gage in Strong Sermon at Grace Church Last Night—Men Respond to Call and Sing, "Ninety and Nine"—Personal Workers Busy.

(By Hugh C. Weir.)

"Too many men of this city who are church members are content to be church members and nothing more," declared Rev. William Boynton Gage of the Presbyterian church in a stirring address at the union prayer service last night. "Too many of the men of our churches are content to sit back on a comfortable cushion, and think that their work is done when they suggest to the minister what ought to be done."

"Fayette county cannot be won to Christ unless the men of our churches heed the call of battle and advance to the firing line."

This declaration of Mr. Gage was made as the climax of a service that drew by far the banner crowd of the week's meetings. More than five hundred persons gathered at the Grace M. E. church. And it was not alone in the numbers that the spirit of the service was manifest. There was an intensity, an earnestness that was emphasized throughout the program. That the power of the evangelistic campaign is seizing the community can no longer be doubted.

The address of Mr. Gage was designed to drive home some pertinent truths, and it succeeded. "The churches of this county," he said, "need more men who are not afraid to take off their coats, roll up their sleeves, and put their religion to work! We need men who are not afraid to get into the game, and fight. I appeal to you men here tonight."

"As business and professional and working men, as residents of city or county, as church members or non-church members, you all know that this community needs a new vision, a new spirit, a new purpose. I call on you as Napoleon called on the Old Guard at Waterloo. Will you go forward with us ministers into the fight? It is a fight for you and yours. Will you stand shoulder to shoulder with us? I don't mean a mere promise to attend these services. That is good, but it is not enough. I mean a promise to enroll yourself to do definite, personal, practical work. Without that promise, this campaign can never be made a success. With that promise, there is nothing which can stop its forward march, nothing which can prevent the most complete and lasting surge of the gospel that this county has ever known."

Mr. Gage's appeal was made primarily to the ninety-nine men of this city who gathered at the Methodist church to sing the world-famous hymn, "The Ninety and Nine". A section in the auditorium was reserved for them, every church in the city contributing representatives. Among the number were the best singers in the community, side by side with men who perhaps had not sung this hymn for years. Hardly a quarter of an hour rehearsal was possible before the opening of the service. Frankly the ministers in charge of the meeting were skeptical of the result. With the ending of the first verse, their skepticism vanished. What the men lacked in the niceties of a trained chorus, they made up in the earnestness behind their effort. No one could escape the spirit of the song. Its appeal could not be mistaken. With such a body of men, imbued with the spirit that was manifested last night, remarkable results may be expected before the campaign that has for its purpose the winning of this county for Christ is completed.

The singing last night was in charge of Mr. Bowman, a young business man of this city, who demonstrated a real ability in the direction of gospel leading. For the first time the new campaign song books of Grace M. E. church were used.

The meeting this evening, which will be held at the Grace M. E. church again, with Rev. Mr. West of the Baptist church in charge, will be the concluding prayer service of the week. A special effort is being put forth to make it a real climax. Among the various features planned for it is the appearance of the High School Glee club. Those who have heard this organization are assured of a real treat.

Personal workers are scouring the city in a systematized effort to carry an invitation to this service to every person possible. Last evening, a well known lady of this city ventured into a Court street pool room with such an invitation. In her hand she held pencil and paper. "I wish that every man and boy here who will come to church tomorrow night will give me his name," she said. For a moment there was an amazed silence. When she left she had fifteen names. "A week ago I would not have believed it possible that I could do such a thing," she told a friend, with tears of wonder and joy in her eyes. That is the spirit which is already showing itself in this movement that promises so much for this community.

Mr. Gage last night spoke on the subject, "Individual Responsibility in Soul-Winning". He said in part, following a gracefully worded introduction by Rev. F. E. Ross of the Grace church, who presented him to the congregation:

"It gives me peculiar pleasure to address this audience tonight. As I look into your faces, my thoughts go back to a grave in Ross county, where lies my grandfather, who spent a life-time as minister of the Presbyterian church. During all of his ministry, I doubt if it was ever his privilege to be invited into a church of another denomination to address an audience made up of diverse denominations."

"My own role in the great march of the gospel dates from a Methodist altar in a little, old-fashioned Methodist church. You will see, therefore, that for personal reasons my presence here tonight brings up some very poignant memories."

"It is this union of denominations, this joining of churches in the campaign, on which we have entered, that emphasizes the possibilities of our task. As I stand here, I tremble at the responsibility which we are facing. Where, for instance, are the young people tonight? They are not here. They are not in any church in any emphasized number. And yet it is easy enough to find them in the pool rooms, on the streets, at our social gatherings. Men and women of Fayette county, if you would save your boys and girls wake up! They need a new, virile, definite realization of the call of the gospel. They need a consecration to God in this period when they are standing at the threshold of maturity. Is their life work to be entered on without the vision of Christ? Are you content to see them nightly and daily in the pool rooms, at the dance, anywhere but in the church of God? I am not decrying amusement, fun, entertainment, but I do say that we need to emphasize other and higher and more serious things in the life of our boys and girls."

Washington and Fayette county are not taking care of their young people as they should do.

If there is one gap more emphasized than another in the relations between the churches of this community and the people it is the absence of the young people at our religious services. The day has come when every parent must take this question home, when they can no longer dally with it, when for the sake of their own flesh and blood, they must answer it daily. Are we to see your boy and girl in the church? Or will you be content to see them go their way, drifting farther from the church?

"Every great reformation of history has been a movement of young men. If we are to have a real reformation in Fayette county, it must be a movement of young men."

"Also, we must emphasize the purpose of personal evangelism. It is not the eloquence of the preacher, not the beauty of our music that is to make this campaign a success. It is the every-day conversation and communion of every-day people in the every-day walks and scenes of life."

Following the close of the meeting, a special meeting of the personal workers of Grace M. E. church was held. Similar organizations have been formed in all of the churches of the city, made up of both men and women, who have pledged themselves to carry a personal appeal to every home in this city, and who are going about their task in the most approved methods of business efficiency.

Plans for the Saturday afternoon automobile gospel service are steadily progressing, and it is believed that this service will be a real innovation in this city. A large touring car will carry a male quartet, musicians, and a speaker through the business section of the city on both Saturday afternoon and evening.

On Sunday afternoon, the big mass meeting for men and women will be held at the Grace M. E. church, at which Professors Boblit and Thomas, the well known gospel singers, will lead.

Poetry For Today

THE FARMER.
 My hands sometimes are horny,
 My face is seamed with sun,
 My path is sometimes thorny,
 My living grimly won
 By labor unremitting
 And hard and bitter toil;
 Forever I am pitting
 My strength against the soil.
 The city's lights and glamour
 Are not for me to know,
 But neither is its clamor,
 Its squalor and its woe;
 Not mine its pleasure places,
 But mine the good brown loam,
 The air, the open spaces,
 The quiet peace of Home.

And, though by all my labor
 I win no mighty prize,
 I still can face my neighbor
 And look him in the eyes;
 I am no speculator
 Within the wheat-pit hurled;
 I am the wealth-creator
 Who helps to feed the world.

One with the empire-makers
 Who bring a better day,
 I till my thrifty acres
 And bow to no man's sway;
 My gold might heap up faster
 Were I to crook the knee,
 But no man is my master
 And I am strong—and free!
 —Berton Braley.

90 YEARS GIVEN GENERAL BUCKNER

Mumfordsville, Ky., Jan. 9.—General Simon Bolivar Buckner died at his home here. He was born in Hart county, Ky., in 1823. In the early 40s he got a cadetship at West Point, graduating in 1844. He served with distinction in the Mexican war, where he was wounded. At the outbreak of the civil war he was made commander of the state guard of Kentucky, and in 1861 he issued an address calling upon the people to take up arms against the Union. He commanded a Confederate brigade at the battle of Donelson, surrendering the fort on Feb. 16 to General Grant. He subsequently commanded a division in General Bragg's army in Tennessee. General Buckner was the candidate of the Gold Democrats for vice president in 1896. Since the campaign of that year General Buckner has been living at Glen Lily, his estate in Hart county, one of the most noted country houses in Kentucky.

The Toll of False Economy

Wheeling, W. Va., is heart-broken over the terrible fire which swept the magnificent new High School building to destruction last Saturday night, entailing a hundred thousand dollar loss and the destruction of the finest High school plant in West Virginia.

Flames sprung from a mysterious origin so fiercely that within ten minutes the entire building was enveloped and loss of life and serious injuries followed falling walls.

Two theories are advanced in regard to the origin of the fire. One is that the flames started from shavings in the manual training department, and the fact that an unknown man, thought to have been a tramp, was found in this part of the building, lends support to the idea that the shavings might have been accidentally lighted. The stranger never recovered consciousness and died at the hospital, so his identity remains unknown.

The other theory and the one which is held by the fire inspectors, is that the stage in the auditorium was the scene of the start of the fire. Crossed wires caused by the heavy snowstorm that recently swept this section of the Ohio valley, are believed to have furnished the spark that fed the flame.

Whatever the cause, the splendid school building, but two years old, is in ruins.

Why?

Partly, at least, it is said, because the School Board disagreed in regard to the erecting of a fire-proof building, owing to the increased cost.

The act of economy has its toll of seven victims, killed and injured and a wrecked building.

Admitting that comparisons are odious, a comparison is naturally suggested between our own splendid new High school building and the doomed edifice of Wheeling.

Persons who have seen both buildings claim that the resemblance between them was striking, and that while the Wheeling school was erected at a greater expense, ours was quite similar.

To the credit of our Board of Education and the excellent judgment of its members, the Washington C. H. High school can claim one immense advantage over the Wheeling school. It is absolutely fire-proof.

Upon the imperative need of a fire-proof building, the local Board stood as firm as a rock.

Not only is the building fire-proof, the electric wiring is conduit proof, and the heating plant separated from the rest of the building by a fire-proof wall.

The citizens of our town, and especially those who have children in attendance at the High school, can well feel immense satisfaction in the additional security of a fire-proof building.

The Board of Education, learning of the holocaust at Wheeling, cannot but feel doubly sure of the wisdom which insisted that the splendid structure, which promises to be the pride of our city for many a decade, be made as safe as advanced modern methods can make it, regardless of additional expense entailed.

ARMY MUZZLED

Washington, Jan. 9.—Officers of the United States army in the future will not be permitted to discuss publicly "army matters of a debatable nature." New regulations to cover this point are to follow an exchange of memoranda between Secretary Garrison and General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, in regard to a published article telling of "free press matter" furnished to newspapers by a writer in the employ of the infantry association.

Some of the matter referred to is said to have dealt directly with the Mexican situation, though much of it was made up of interviews with officers on the movement for a larger army and certain reforms in organization—the objects of the infantry association.

MILLIONAIRE JUGGED

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 9.—J. M. Foster, 45, a millionaire of Browns Mills, N. J., was placed under arrest on a charge of violation of the Mann white slave act. With Foster was a beautiful young woman whose name is Deliah Bradley of Pemberton, N. J., and a former stenographer employed by Foster. The two were arrested at a leading hotel, where they registered as man and wife. They have been living at the hotel since that date. The woman is held as a witness. It is said Foster has a wife and 14-year-old daughter.

OUTPUT OF LOCAL PLANT SOON TO BE INCREASED

The Inskeep Manufacturing plant, better known as the mitten factory, located on Temple street, is now employing some 50 persons in the manufacture of canvas mittens and gloves, turning out approximately 650 pairs each day, and these mittens and gloves are shipped all over the United States and into Canada.

The capacity of the plant is much greater than the above figures, and within a short time it is planned to increase the force and thus increase the output. With the present equipment there is room for about 75 employees, and by spring it is expected that the plant will be running at its utmost capacity.

Additional machinery was added to the plant last summer, which makes the factory one of the most complete in the United States.

It was in this city that the manufacture of canvas mittens and gloves originated, it is claimed, and within the past few years hundreds of thousands of pair have been used annually.

At the present rate of manufacture, the plant is turning out more than 400,000 pairs of mittens and gloves each year.

The Illinois branch of the local concern will be ready for business early next spring, and will have an annual output of several hundred thousand pairs of mittens and gloves.

Most of the employees of the factory in this city are young women.

Severe Bronchial Cough

Doctors Feared Lung Trouble, Restored to Health by Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that lung troubles are inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to them.

Mrs. Kate Heckman, Springfield, Ohio, says: "A few years ago I was in a very bad run-down condition, and the physician told me I had consumption. I tried another physician, and he told me I had ulcers on my right lung. I quit the physicians and started on 'Vinol.' Today I am perfectly healthy, and that is why I recommend 'Vinol.'"

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Blackmer & Tanquary.

MELTING SNOW AND BAD STREETS

The melting snow has caused several of the streets to become very disagreeable, with many ruts filled with water, and the sloppy condition generally makes traffic tedious.

Some of the sidewalks, which were covered with snow, have been almost impassable unless pedestrians are shod with good rubbers.

The sidewalk to the north and south of the Central school grounds have been especially disagreeable.

COMMISSION FORM
REDUCING THE COST

Springfield, Ohio, Jan. 9.—Names of persons who will have to be dropped from the city's pay roll began to be given out by those in charge of the department Wednesday.

Manager Ashburner notified Engineer Bahin to reduce his force by four men after January 15. He did not dictate whom should be discharged, and Mr. Bahin let the following men out, second assistant William Day; draughtsman, Walter Stelzer; rodmen Joe Rheithimer and Patrick O'Brien. These were the last put to work.

Nothing was done toward selecting the police and firemen who will be laid off.

The following is the letter which Mr. Ashburner sent to Mr. Bahin, and is a fair sample of the business way in which he goes about the job:

Administrative Department,
January 7, 1914.

"M. J. Bahin, City Engineer,

"Dear Sir:

NEXT WEEK IS THE BIG WEEK

Great preparations are under way for the "big week" in Jeffersonville next week, when the annual corn show, poultry show and farmers' institute will be held in that hustling town.

The corn show begins January 13, and ends on the 17th. While the poultry show commences Monday, January 12th, and continues until Saturday night. There will be no admission fee, and every one is invited to attend.

Liberal premiums have been offered in both the corn and poultry shows, and some sharp competition is expected.

The state speakers for the institute are: George E. Scott, of Mt. Pleasant, Ohio; M. L. Tressler, Montpelier, Ohio, and Dr. Mary E. Anderson, of Hudson, Ohio. Hon. Reuben Rankin is president; Al. Armstrong, vice president, and O. A. Allen, secretary. H. J. Smith, A. S. Bocco and Howard Hagler form the executive committee. Music is to be furnished by the Jeffersonville orchestra.

HUFFMAN HELD TO GRAND JURY

After most of the day had been consumed in the examination of witnesses in the trial of Lee Huffman, the Jefferson township youth who was arrested upon suspicion of being the party who set fire to the residence of John Swaney the night of December 24th, Huffman was bound over to the grand jury under $300 bond, which he furnished.

Of the witnesses who testified, the evidence of two implicated the young man in the affair. According to the evidence of these two men, Huffman approached them with an offer to pay them if they would fire the house in question.

The gasoline can and charred fuse, used in kindling the fire which threatened the Swaney home, were exhibits in the trial before Justice Craig.

JAMESTOWN MEN
PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Oscar Carpenter and Frank Harper, two Jamestown druggists, and Fred Sadders, a resident of the same village, appeared in Greene county Probate Court in answer to charges of "keeping places" in violation of the liquor laws. They entered pleas of not guilty and Judge Howard placed them each under bond in the sum of $200 and fixed the dates for their trials as follows: Carpenter, January 15th; Harper, January 16th and Sadders January 17th.

Judge Marcus Shoup is counsel for the defendants.

LANDING MEN
ON FRONTIER

Washington, Jan. 9.—A more aggressive policy on the part of the administration in dealing with the Mexican situation is indicated in an order issued by the secretary of the navy. The secretary has ordered that 400 marines now stationed on the Isthmus of Panama be transferred to the east coast of Mexico.

It is believed the administration is preparing for the adoption of a stern policy to take the place of the present attitude of waiting for President Huerta to yield.

The battleship Minnesota will proceed to Colon, Panama, and take on board the 400 marines and convey them to Vera Cruz, where they will be distributed among the battleships. The total force of marines available for landing parties at short notice will be about 850 men.

Reports of the state department indicate that the contending factions in Mexico appear to be taking a breathing spell in preparation for a series of general engagements all along the border and as far east as Tampico on the gulf coast, which are to decide the control of northern Mexico. In the opinion of the army experts here, the federals at Ojinaga and Nuevo Laredo and Tampico are busy with pick and shovel strengthening their defenses, while the Constitutionalists are waiting for ammunition.

DRUGGIST FINED

Frank Carpenter, one of the Jamestown druggists against whom affidavits had been filed charging him with keeping a place, appeared in Probate Court and plead guilty to a charge of furnishing liquor. He was given a fine of $200 and costs which he promptly paid. The charge of keeping a place was withdrawn. The charges were brought by County Detective Matthews, who investigated matters in the Jamestown drug stores. —Xenia Gazette.

PURSELL PROPERTY
CHANGES HANDS

The residence of Mrs. H. D. Purcell, on East Court street, was sold Thursday, to Kerns Thompson, of Madison Mills, and possession will be given March 1st. The consideration is said to have been $8,000.

The new owner is a well known farmer and stock dealer of the Madison Mills locality.

Rengo Belt

Reducing Corsets

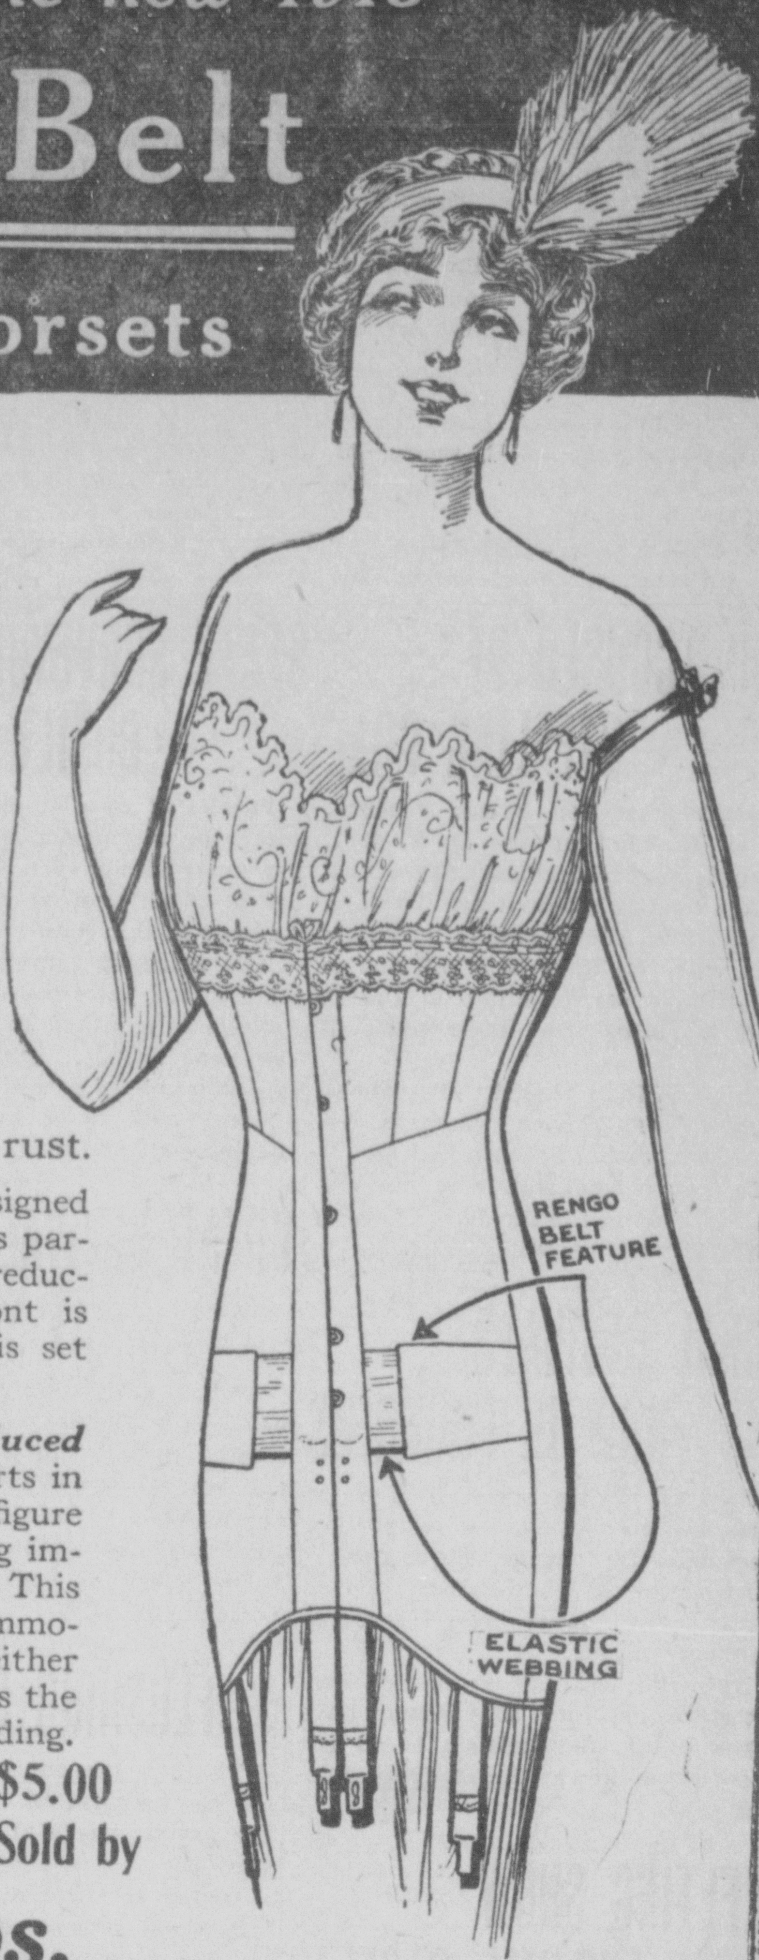

for medium and stout women lies in their perfect proportion, their low bust, straight waist and small hips.

WITHOUT the great strength which we put into Rengo Belt Reducing corsets, they would not retain their shape. In this feature they surpass all other corsets for wonderful value. The boning is double watch-spring steel, guaranteed not to rust.

Of the several models, each designed for a special purpose, this style is particularly intended for abdominal reduction. Across the reinforced front is an additional belt into which is set strong, elastic webbing.

By this belt the abdomen is reduced and supported. Long trim skirts in the back are held snugly to the figure by an additional band of webbing immediately beneath the back stay. This garment will automatically accommodate itself to any position either sitting or standing and represents the most advanced ideas of figure building.

FARMERS MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY'S ANNUAL MEETING

The 15th annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. was held Wednesday afternoon at the township house in Madison Mills. There was a large attendance and great enthusiasm.

The object of the meeting was the election of a vice-president, one director and an auditing committee, together with the transaction of any other business that might arise.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. Peter Dorn, of Sedalia, one of the pioneers of the organization. Mrs. S. J. Paullin, the retiring vice-president and by Messrs. R. G. Jefferson and J. E. Hopkins, president and secretary respectively, who were sent as delegates to attend the state insurance convention held in Columbus last February.

Great interest was manifested in all of the addresses and reports, which were followed by spirited general discussion.

Mr. Glen Hankins, of Sedalia, a nephew of Mr. Paullin, was elected to the vice-presidency, and Mr. Geo. Kirk was re-elected to the office of director.

The annual report for the year ending December 31, 1913, shows a total of 1521 members or policies in force, an increase of 119 during the year. The total insurance in force now aggregates $3,522,875, which is an increase of $533,135 over the previous year. The gross receipts for the year were $14,129.12, and losses paid amounted to $5500.32. The company has made a phenomenal growth during the 15 years of its existence, and its president during all these years, Mr. R. G. Jefferson, of near Madison Mills, announces that the company's average annual cost of carrying one thousand dollars of insurance has been only $1.80.

The concern is limited to carrying risks in Madison, Marion, Union, Paint, Jasper and Jefferson townships in this county; Range, Pleasant and Stokes townships in Madison county, and Darby, Monroe, Perry and Deer Creek townships in Pickaway county, except where lands owned or rented by a policyholder extend into adjoining territory not mentioned above.

"DIVINE HEALER" LANDS BEHIND BARS

Greenville, O., Jan. 9.—Della Deimling, who advertises herself as a divine healer, was arrested at Hotel James here by Chief Bascom, on a warrant charging her with practicing the healing art without a state certificate. The affidavit was filed by C. H. Matson, secretary of the state registration board. In her local advertisement she said she would take nothing for her services until a cure had been effected, but it is alleged she had already taken in several dollars up to the time of her arrest. Patients had come from Dayton and southern Ohio, but refused to give their names, as they said they realized that they had been duped.

Mrs. Deimling was accompanied by Oliver Schibler, her manager, and a little girl. She is the same person who is alleged to have escaped from the sheriff at Delaware while he was waiting for her in a hotel in that city.

RESTORED TO LIFE

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 9.—Cincinnati was confronted with the statement of a man who, although he "dropped dead in his home and passed through the material conditions of death," was restored to life through Christian Science. Verification was had in the shape of a signed statement, issued by the man in question, who is A. J. Thorne, a dealer in steel furniture.

COURT HAS CASE

Washington, Jan. 9.—Arguments in the contempt case involving Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, officers of the American Federation of Labor, were submitted in the supreme court. Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison were both present in court, accompanied by members of the executive council of the federation and the chiefs of some of the brotherhoods.

LINK'S RADIUM TO RELIGION

New York, Jan. 9.—Dr. Howard A. Kelley, surgeon and cancer specialist, who has accomplished so much by the use of radium, in a talk on "Radium and Religion" before the Bible teachers' training school asserted that the Old Testament refers to radium and its curative powers, and he outlined the spiritual significance of the new metal. Giving science a background of religion, he told of the virtues of radium in the treatment of some, not all, cases of cancer. He warned the public to beware of fake radium tubes.

FIGHT PROHIBITION

Toledo, O., Jan. 9.—Fear of prohibition, as announced by the Ohio Progressives last Saturday, has caused a statewide movement of retail liquor dealers to organize and combat the issue. For this reason Nicholas Dulle of Dayton, secretary of the Ohio State Liquor Dealers, addressed members of the Lucas county liquor dealers at a mass meeting. Mr. Dulle said he intended to meet all the retail dealers in Ohio.

ACCUSES COPS

Cleveland, O., Jan. 9.—As an aftermath to an epidemic of robberies here, Chief of Police William Rowe started an investigation of charges that two patrolmen played the part of robbers in a holdup on St. Clair avenue. The patrolmen were in plain clothes, it is said. The charges against them were preferred by Patrolman William Trunk, who says he witnessed the robbery.

COX AT BANQUET

Wooster, O., Jan. 9.—Wayne county Democrats celebrated the victory of Andrew Jackson at New Orleans. One thousand persons listened to addresses by Governor James M. Cox, Senator Atlee Pomerene and John H. Clarke of Cleveland. S. E. Warbe presided as toastmaster at the banquet which followed.

FORD'S PLAN IS DENOUNCED

New York, Jan. 9.—Automobile manufacturers will not attempt to emulate Henry Ford. They are pretty generally in agreement that they would have to shut up shop if they were forced to pay a minimum wage of $5 a day, adopt a plan of profit-sharing as large as that of the president of the Ford Motor company and limit a day's work to eight hours.

Many of the most prominent manufacturers in the country, exhibitors at the annual motorcar show in the Grand Central palace, were interviewed and frankly stated their reasons why they believe Mr. Ford's program could not be applied to their own concerns or to the great majority of manufacturing concerns of any character.

Their point of view, in a nutshell, was that Mr. Ford is rich enough and his concern in a field so peculiarly its own, that he can afford, perhaps, to indulge in Utopian projects; that his plan, while it may temporarily disturb labor conditions and cause dissatisfaction among workmen who can not aspire to a minimum wage of $5 a day or to rich dividends from profit-sharing, will not have widespread harmful effects.

The manufacturers are inclined to believe that Mr. Ford's plan is an economic mistake in at least one of its essentials—the $5 minimum wage.

Hugh Chalmers said in an interview that he considered Mr. Ford's plan too radical a step to take without consulting other automobile manufacturers. The plan ought to tickle the Socialists nearly to death, he said, because it is something like what they have always been crying for.

SNEFFELS, COL. A. J. Walsh was badly done up with rheumatism and sent for Foley Kidney Pills which was the only thing that would cure him. Geo. Potter of Pontiac, Mo., was down on his back with kidney and bladder trouble and Foley Kidney Pills made him well and able to work. It is a splendid medicine and always helps. Just try it. ELEVEN MURDERED OTHER ELEMENT AFTER MELON

By Associated Press

Berlin, Germany, January 9.—Two crimes of violence involving the death of 11 persons were committed today in Soldau, a province of Prussia and Hamburg. At Soldau an entire family consisting of a man, his wife and five children were found dead in their house this morning with their throats cut and the gas turned on. A dog with its head almost severed was lying beside them. Pecuniary difficulties are supposed to have driven the parents to kill the children and then commit suicide. At Hamburg, today a policeman killed his three daughters and then himself after a family quarrel.

STILL A CASE

By Associated Press.

Boston, Mass., January 9.—Even if it should be found that the United Shoe Machinery Company is not a monopoly, the government still has a case and is entitled to a decree from the courts on the charge that the defendant company has conspired to monopolize the shoe machinery business. This announcement was made by Judge Arthur L. Brown at the resumption of the dissolution proceedings against the company in the U. S. District court today.

LIBERATES DOVE

Pass Christian, Miss., Jan. 9.—President Woodrow Wilson stood on the veranda of his cottage and, acting on the request of a little brown-haired schoolgirl, released a white dove, whose broken wing she had nursed back to strength.

AFTER MELON

New York, Jan. 9.—Suit was filed in the supreme court by holders of 1,950 shares of preferred stock of the Union Pacific to enjoin the Union's proposed distribution of its Baltimore Ohio stock to its common stockholders. The suit was filed immediately after the board of directors of the Union Pacific had ratified the executive committee's recommendation for the stock distribution. Action is brought for a permanent injunction as well as a temporary injunction pending the hearing. It is based on the allegation that the B. & O. stock of the Union Pacific represents capital investment of the company and fixed assets, not earnings. As such, it is claimed, the preferred stockholders are entitled to share in the distribution.

TAFT FOR CHIEF?

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 9.—It was stated here by a New Haven man who had just returned from Pass Christian, where President Wilson is spending his vacation, that the president was considering the appointment of Professor William Howard Taft as chief justice of the supreme court to succeed Chief Justice Edward White when he retires because of age limit. Professor Taft was asked if he would make any comment on the announcement that he was to succeed Chief Justice White, to which he replied: "I must ask to be excused from commenting on the matter."

REBELS ADVANCING

Presidio, Tex., Jan. 9.—Panche Villa and his rebel reinforcements, with ample ammunition, passed through Lamula pass, on the way to the rebel camp. The rebel general is preparing to renew the attack on Ojinaka, but just when the attack will start is uncertain.

The federals sent out skirmishers in the direction of the rebel camp. The federals later received a report that the rebels were advancing. The rebels sent nearly 100 wounded to this side of the river. This forced the Red Cross to appeal for more help.

Colonel Luis Cuilly a federal commander, died in the hospital here. He declared that his own men shot him on the battlefield.

BATTLE IMMINENT

Presidio, Texas, January 9.—A fresh influx of refugees from Ojinaka today bore witness of the belief on the Mexican side of the line that General Villa is about to lead the combined forces of the Constitutionalists to attack the town. Preparations were made by Red Cross and army authorities to care for the wounded.
